2. The beneficial use on which the claim is based: Water used for household purposes & for watering livestock.

3. Date or approximate date of earliest beneficial use; and how continuous the use has been: The well was dug in 1930 and the use has been continuous from and after that date.

4. The amount of groundwater claimed (in miner's inches or gallons per minute): Five gallons per minute, based on year around average.

5. If used for irrigation, give the average and description of the lands to which water has been applied and name of the owner thereof: This well is not used for irrigating purposes.

6. The means of withdrawing such water from the ground and the location of each well or other works for the withdrawal of groundwater: The water is withdrawn from the well by a jet pump located approximately 65 feet from the well.

7. The date of commencement and completion of the construction of the well, wells, or other works for withdrawal of groundwater: The construction of this well was commenced on approximately August 1, 1930, and was completed prior to September 1, 1930.

8. The depth of water table: 30 feet.

9. So far as it may be available, the type, size and depth of each well or the general specifications of any other works for the withdrawal of groundwater: This is a hand dug well which is 36 feet in depth and approximately 30 inches inside diameter, exclusive of approximately one foot of cribbing and concrete casing. The well was originally pumped with a hand pump located at the well, but is now pumped with a jet pump located approximately 65 feet from the well.

10. The estimated amount of groundwater withdrawn each year: Approximately 100,000 to 150,000 gallons per year.

11. The log of formations encountered in the drilling of each well if available: The appropriator personally hand dug this well and kept no log on the formations, but remembers generally that the entire 36 feet was composed of hard pan clay and gravel approximately one to several inches in diameter.

12. Such other information of a similar nature as may be useful in carrying out the policy of this act, including reference to book and page of any county record: The appropriator states that he never filled any information on the drilling of this well or the beneficial use of the water withdrawn therefrom with the County Clerk & Recorder.
